

HAMPTON RIFLE CLUB

General Data Protection Regulations Club Privacy Policy

About this policy

This policy explains when and why we, Hampton Rifle Club, collect personal information about our members and how we use it; keep it secure and club member's rights in relation to it. This includes probationary members, visitors and guests. We will collect, use and store personal data, as described in this Data Protection Policy when people engage in activities at the club. Normally this will be through some level of membership.

We reserve the right to amend this Data Protection Policy from time to time without prior notice. You are advised to check the Club notice board regularly for any amendments or visit www.hamptonrifleclub.org.uk. We will only share your personal data with any third parties as outlined in the tables below.

We will always comply with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) when dealing with your personal data. Further details on the GDPR can be found at the website for the Information Commissioner (www.ico.gov.uk).

Responsible person

For the purposes of the GDPR, The Club Secretary will be the "controller" of all personal data we hold about club members and others. The Club Secretary is responsible for making sure the club complies with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which applies from 25 May 2018. We will review personal data every year to establish whether we are still entitled to process it or not.

Member's rights

You have rights under the GDPR:

- To access your personal data
- To be provided with information about how your personal data is processed
- To have your personal data corrected
- To have your personal data erased in certain circumstances
- To object to or restrict how your personal data is processed in certain circumstances

For more details, please address any questions, comments and requests regarding our data processing practices to the Club Secretary.

Specific use and sharing of personal information

Your personal data (name, address, place and date of birth) will be used to notify the Police when you join the club and for any appropriate notifications as required by law. In general your personal data will only be used for the purposes of membership management and your email and telephone numbers may be used for communication about news/work at the club/range closure, competition entries/results and other important notices etc. Your name, address and email address may be shared with our current National Governing Body (NSRA) for insurance purposes. Your personal data will not be passed to anyone else outside the club and your email will only be given to someone outside the club with your express permission.

The Lawful reasons for processing your data.

We have three lawful reasons for processing your data, which are:

- (a) Processing is necessary for compliance with our legal obligation (Firearm Amendment Act 1988 c.45 Exemptions Section 15 – Firearms clubs), the Section 21 Declaration and to meet the clubs Home Office approval criteria.
- (b) Processing of your data is necessary for the administration of your membership contract.
- (c) You have given consent to the processing of your data by signing our privacy statement for the specific purposes set out in this policy.

The tables below give further explanation of which lawful reason applies to which data, why we collect it and who we may be required to share it with. The club will make every effort to ensure data is only shared with organisations that are GDPR compliant.

What Information we collect, why we collect it, and who we share it with

In addition to the reasons stated below we may have to disclose your data where we have an inescapable legal obligation.

Data processed under our legal obligation

Requirements of Home Office Approval and Firearms Act

The club is a Home Office Approved Rifle Club. This means that the club will:

- Appoint a Police Liaison Officer – currently the Secretary
- Maintain registers of all attendees with details of the firearm used (white folder & black folder)
- Inform the Police of any person other than a guest member who has ceased to be a member for whatever reason
- Inform the Police of any member who has not shot at the club for a period of 12 months
- Inform the Police of any application for membership giving the applicant's full name and address, date and place of birth and the date on which they made their application

Enquiries and other communications with the club

When enquiring about the club we may hold your details for a period of time to deal with the enquiry. Any emails and other communications with the club will only be retained for a period of time appropriate to the content or request.

Club emails will be purged on a regular basis. People added to a club waiting list for membership will be informed and asked for permission to store that data at that point.

Children

Parents or guardians signing the probationary or full membership form are giving their permission for the data to be used as described elsewhere in this policy.

How we protect your personal data

The Data Controller will process membership information electronically and hold all information on a database on a computer secured with a password. A backup of this information will be held on an encrypted flash drive. Paper copies of data will be held at the Secretaries house in a locked safe, or at the club house in locked armouries. If it is necessary to transport data it will be kept secure.

Coaches and instructors will also process and hold information pertaining to people under their instruction and necessary information will be made available to coaches and instructors only as required.

In the unlikely event of a breach of the security of data we will notify members promptly and we will never sell or pass on your personal data.

Request to see your personal information

If you wish to know what personal data the club holds please email the Club Secretary and he/she will respond within 14 days of the request (depending on availability).

Accuracy and retention of data

Each individual member is responsible for keeping the Club Secretary informed of changes to their data (e.g. address/telephone number etc.) and this is updated at least once a year at renewal and you are at that time authorising the club to hold such data on file.

The data is kept on file as detailed in the section 'How we protect your personal data'. The data will be normally be kept for a minimum of 6 years in line with the Home Office requirements. It may be kept for a longer period for reasons of legal and civil action or other ongoing case management. Name, address and length of membership will be kept for up to 30 years for management of historical insurance claims. Names and scores may be kept indefinitely for reason of historical significance – e.g. on trophies, plaques and other awards.

CCTV Images

CCTV is used on the premises in the interests of safety and crime prevention. All images are stored onsite on computer hardware and a DVR recorder. The images/data are stored for approximately 30 days and then these are over written. If the images/data are required in the event of an insurance claim, criminal or civil legal action or other such event, the data may be retained for longer periods than that stated above, and be passed over to such authorities as required.

For these reasons the information processed may include visual images, personal appearance and behaviours. This information may be about club members, visitors, guests, offenders and suspected offenders, members of the public and those inside, entering or in the immediate vicinity of the area under surveillance.

Where necessary or required this information is shared with the data subjects themselves, police forces, security organisations and persons making an official enquiry.

Any complaints which rely on this about theft/bullying/abuse etc. must therefore be made within 28 days of the incident otherwise the images may have been overwritten.
